

OWNER'S GUIDE FOR ONBOARDING NEW COACH

We exist to ignite self-confidence—for one and for all.

NEW COACH'S NAME: _____ START DATE: _____

This guide is for owners or managers to use with their new staff as they begin their onboarding journey. Use this document as a high-level overview to assess their knowledge of the content covered in the onboarding curriculum found in the Anytime Academy.

Note: Provide the new coach with their own onboarding guide (found in the Resource Center) for their own guided learning. The new coach is responsible for their onboarding guide and should have the lead trainer (owner or manager) initial items as they are completed.

Hiring a New Coach:

- ☐ Conduct Interview
 - Phone interview
 - 1st interview
 - 2nd interview
- ☐ Welcome new hire
 - Send new employee welcome email
 - Confirm start date
 - Order uniforms
 - Create employee bio and post to AF website + post in club
 - Copy of valid certifications
 - Copy of valid CPR | AED | Basic First Aid
- ☐ Complete tax and federal forms
 - I-9 paperwork filled out and submitted
 - Tax forms (W-4)
- ☐ Create AF Accounts
 - AF Dashboard
 - Club OS login and set permissions – User ID: _____
 - Set Club OS availability
 - Download AF App
 - Login to Anytime Academy and assign Anytime Academy Curriculum
- ☐ Review club policies
- ☐ Review safety policies
- ☐ Schedule 30-day check-in
- ☐ Schedule 60-day check-in
- ☐ Schedule 90-day check-in
 - Receive club access (Key fob, keys, etc.)

- ☐ Have new coach complete Personal Training – Level 1 curriculum in the Anytime Academy (est. time 6 hours)

After completing the curriculum, they should be able to:

- Understand the AF Technology Ecosystem
 - Anytime Academy
 - Club Connect
 - Resource Center
 - Coaching Dashboard
 - AF App
 - Club OS
 - Club Hub iOS
 - Club Connect
 - Understand how heart rate monitor's work
 - Understand the science behind body composition technology
 - Create coach elevator pitch
 - Create brand elevator pitch
 - Model the PLEASE Service Standards
 - Answer the phone using proper AF greeting
 - Understand each stage of the Member Life Cycle
 - Understand how to onboard a new member and conduct a fitness consultation
 - Collecting the Story
 - Conduct an Evolt Body Scan
 - Conduct the High Five Assessment
 - Deliver the Workout
 - Plan the Journey
 - Keep in Touch
 - Understand the basics of AF Training
 - Find and navigate AF Training templates
 - Programming
- ☐ New coach should review and complete the Daily Cleaning and Maintenance Checklist
- ☐ New coach should experience, shadow, practice, and role play each item listed on the next page. Initial and mark as complete on the coach's onboarding guide. Use the guide below as reference for what you are responsible for training them in on.

EXPERIENCE – The new coach should experience and complete each item like a member

SHADOW – The new coach will observe the owner/manager completing each item

PRACTICE – The new coach will complete each item as the owner/manager observes and helps as needed.

ROLE PLAY – The new coach will practice each item with peers

	EXPERIENCE	SHADOW	PRACTICE	ROLE PLAY
Telephone Inquiry
Membership Tour
PT Agreement
Price Presentation
Overcoming Objections
RIO – Restate, Isolate, Overcome
Collecting the Story
Evolt Body Scan
High Five Assessment
Deliver the Workout
Plan the Journey
Follow Up
One-on-One Training Session
Small Group Training Session
Team Training Session
Virtual Session				