PROCEDURE

Each behavior listed below is part of delivering a Small Group Training. Check the box when a behavior is observed. Staff can learn this process by enrolling in "How to Coach a Virtual Session"

AF Training – Small Group Training	NOTES:
Prepare for the Session ☐ writes out workout on the training board large and dark enough so clients can read it ☐ space is clear and distractions removed ☐ sets up camera/laptop at least 6.5 feet away so clients can see entire body when on the ground, standing, and arms up overhead ☐ preps workout equipment and technology (laptop, lighting, time) ☐ logs into the session 5-10 minutes prior
Welcome Clients ☐ smiles and greets every client by name as they log on ☐ introduces themselves by name and title ☐ takes an inventory of each client's equipment (if any) ☐ reminds clients to set their device to 'do not disturb' ☐ reminds clients to mute themselves if playing music ☐ observes client's behaviors and assists as needed
Conduct Introductions & Icebreaker ☐ welcomes the group and introduces icebreaker ☐ calls on each client, asks them to introduce themselves and share their icebreaker ☐ gives a brief introduction to the workout
Explain the Workout & Demonstrate ☐ references the workout board and provides an overview of the session goals ☐ explains what they should feel, e.g., high heart rate, or slow and controlled, etc. ☐ demonstrates the workout as prescribed for each individual client ☐ asks clients if they have questions about the workout
Lead the Warm-Up ☐ takes about 7-10 minutes to lead group through the warm-up ☐ keeps the tone fun, light, fast-paced, and excited

Coach the Session ☐ uses clients' names ☐ connects with each client using energy, engagement, hand gestures, sincere facial experience, and vocal tone that is clear and confident ☐ always keeps the whiteboard in view for self and clients ☐ reminds clients of the purpose of the workout ☐ provides each client with personalized coaching throughout the session using their name, a cue using positive language, and words of encouragement
Coach the Finisher ☐ uses the "finisher" as prescribed in the workout ☐ explains the finisher to clients and provides clear and detailed explanation
Recovery ☐ leads clients through SMR, mobility (+static stretching), mindfulness ☐ facilitates relaxed, free chat to share achievements and check-in ☐ ends with confirming next scheduled session ☐ says goodbye and thanks clients

SOFT SKILLS

Soft skills relate to the personal qualities and communication abilities needed on the job. These behaviors can be observed in the way a person interacts with others. Check the box when you observe these soft-skill behaviors.

Soft Skills	NOTES:
☐ coach is dressed in uniform, well groomed, etc. ☐ uses functional training space effectively ☐ maintains energetic and friendly tone ☐ works to make each client feel comfortable ☐ maintains positive body language (arms uncrossed, eye contact) ☐ listens and responds to what the client is saying ☐ answers questions in a simple, yet informative way
