

TRAINER COMPENSATION PLAN

New Hire Name: _____ Start Date: _____

Title: Personal Trainer / Lead Trainer

Reporting Relationship: The position will report directly to _____ (Club Manager).

Benefits: The current, standard company health, life, long-term disability, and dental insurance coverage are generally supplied per company policy. To qualify for benefits, trainer must meet or exceed the minimum 120 hours serviced for three consecutive months. Upon three consecutive months, AF will calculate the 3 month rolling average to accurately determine eligibility. Consequently, if a trainer fails to maintain the 120 hours serviced for three consecutive months (3 month rolling average) then the trainer will be dropped from benefits.

Paid Time Off: To qualify for paid time off, trainer must meet or exceed the minimum 120 hours serviced for three consecutive months. Years 1-2: 5 days. Years 3+ 10 days.

Sessions Serviced
<20 Hours $18 - $21 Per Hour	21- 29 Hours $22 - $24 Per Hour	30 Hours/ Lead $25 - $28 Per Hour

Floor Time or Fitness Assessments, Meetings

$12.00 / Hour

6 Week Follow-ups

$6.00 | Half-hour

Team Training

$12.00 | Hour+ $3 Per Head

Employee Training

$11.00 / Half-hour

*To qualify for the higher percentage rate a trainer must meet or exceed the minimum sessions serviced for three consecutive months. Upon three consecutive months, AF will calculate the 3 month rolling average to accurately determine eligibility for a higher percentage of pay. Consequently, if a trainer fails to maintain the higher percentage of pay for three consecutive months (3 month rolling average) then the trainer will be dropped into a lower percentage of pay. This will be determined by Club OS.

- Must maintain a current CPR / AED Certification
- Must maintain a National Certification for Personal Training or college degree in the field
- Trainer may not train at any other facility within a 15-mile radius of the club
- Trainer must always be in uniform when training on the floor
- It is expected that the trainer is ready 5 minutes prior to all FC's, sessions, and appointments
- It is expected that the trainer have all workouts completed and ready prior to the session beginning
- The trainer is to be fully engaged with the client during the session
- Schedules must be booked out a minimum of 2 weeks in advance in Club OS
- Trainer must keep client files, photos and assessments up to date in Club OS
- Trainer agrees to complete any CEC's designated by the manager in a timely manner
- Trainer will be required to complete the trainer onboarding plan prior to training any clients
- As a reflection of the gym, the trainer is to maintain a positive and uplifting mentality while training
- Trainer agrees not to disclose compensation or pay with clients or other trainers
- Trainer agrees to let manager and clients know immediately if canceling on or rescheduling clients

Trainer Code of Conduct:

You have been hired to educate, motivate, and help members of Anytime Fitness achieve their fitness goals in a safe and healthy manner. As a trainer you are expected to act professional at all times. Never lie, cheat, or steal. Always show respect to your peers and others associated with Anytime Fitness. As an employee of Anytime Fitness, it is expected that you express genuine respect for Anytime Fitness, their affiliates, and staff. If it is determined or identified that you are compromising the integrity of the members, guests, peers, and but not limited to policies & procedures: you could be subject to disciplinary action that might result in termination.

Trainer Signature: _____

Date: _____

