

21-DAY TRANSFORMATION

Finale Meeting + FitCheck

Objectives

- Establish final measurements for participants with the FitCheck
- Submit entry for the Biggest Transformation winner
- Build community, increase visibility to training services
- Recruit new memberships and long-term training clients

Before the Meeting

- Plan your party: get snacks, beverages, swag, provide upbeat music, etc.
- Make sure you have 1 coach to lead the meeting and all available staff to help with signups
- Familiarize staff with closing process and package incentives
- Have computers and iPads ready to accommodate signups
- Identify all participants who completed 10 Group Training Sessions and determine a small prize to award them
- Print a copy of the Finale Meeting agenda and a list of attendees for reference
- Bring All FitChecks that were collected at the Kick-off meeting

Agenda

Greet your Participants (10 minutes)

1. Greet your members at the door with ample high fives!
2. Use your printed list of attendees to see who's there, and follow-up with anyone who doesn't attend.
3. Give each attendee their FitCheck (used at the initial FitCheck workout) as they arrive and prepare for the final workout.

Offer Training Services (10 minutes)

1. After everyone's arrived, thank everyone who participated in the challenge and offer incentives for them to sign up for training services. Mention any participants who have already joined and/or purchased training. Say the following to your participants:

You've made it! 21 days done! Don't forget to maximize your experience by taking advantage of our offer [incentive to join] to continue training with us. We've seen countless lives touched by our personal training program and we know that with a start like this, this could be your best year yet. You may already know what package fits you best, but if not, we're here to help you decide. Remember, if you can't continue, we are still going to succeed together.

2. Announce all participants who completed all 10 group training sessions and provide a small prize.
3. Conduct the final FitCheck workout and have everyone turn in their FitCheck to determine the Biggest Transformation winner.

Conduct the Final FitCheck Workout (30 minutes)

NOTE: All exercises in the FitCheck are found throughout our programming. Participants will be introduced to movements today they may see in upcoming sessions. Encourage them to ask questions along the way.

1. Turn on an upbeat playlist to amp up participants' energy and motivation!
2. Provide a brief review of how the exercises and stations work and lead the dynamic warm-up. Use the current AF Live Programming weekly template for your warm-up.
3. Have pairs move to their starting stations with their FitChecks and writing utensils, ready to begin the workout.
4. Cycle through stations 1 – 8 using your interval timer, set to 30-second intervals. During the workout, motivate and coach! Encourage them, using their names. Identify those who may be struggling and give them extra attention.
