

ONBOARDING COMPANION GUIDE

This guide is for owners or managers to use to check in with new staff as they go through the onboarding curricula in the Academy. This document will provide you with a high-level overview of what content is covered in each section of the onboarding curricula, as well as some suggestions for how you might informally test the new staff's knowledge and retention of the information they have learned online.

Before using this guide, ensure the staff member has completed one of the following on the Anytime Academy:

Club Management - Level 1 Curriculum

Personal Training - Level 1 Curriculum

WELCOME TO ANYTIME FITNESS

This section reviews the big picture of Anytime Fitness. Learners who have completed this section should have foundational knowledge about all of the following:

- AF membership components
- AF Training options
- Club layout and amenities
- AF brand strategy
- Consumer segmentation
- Global presence

Use the following suggestions to check their comprehension and retention of the information:

1) Have the staff member walk you around the club and ask them for information on different amenities and features.

Key items would be inspiration wall, manifesto wall, club signage, 24/7 access, worldwide access, turf, etc.

2) Discuss our customer segments (Jan, Stan & Nancy) - their personalities, wants, barriers, etc.

Good responses would include that all need direction, connection, care and communication.

3) Review the different training models (Team, SGT, one-on-one) and ask for their distinguishing features.

Good responses will include style and energy of each (fast-paced/high energy for team; more focused and grounded for SGT and one-on-one) as well as information about Base, Burn and Build.

CLUB FOUNDATIONS

This section is more focused on the smaller, more detailed aspects of day-to-day work-life in the club. Learners who have completed this section should be familiar with all of the following:

- Uniform requirements and options
- Club staff roles (Manager, Training Manager, and Trainer)
- Safety and Security policies and procedures
- Digital resources ranging from the Dashboard, to ABC, to the App

Use the following suggestions to check their comprehension and retention of the information:

1) Ask about how the staff member's strengths fit the outlined description of their position. What do they think will be the greatest challenge?

Good responses will list role responsibilities and corresponding skills (for example, a manager will need to sell memberships and so should have strong interpersonal skills)

2) Ask about the proper way to handle a crisis.

Good responses will include knowledge of emergency items such as AED, CPR kits, First Aid kits, or extinguishers, as well as a plan to call 911, tend injured, document incident, secure video surveillance, report to corporate, FBC, and Owner

3) Have the staff lead a virtual tour of the different tools they might use in a given day, and what each tool does.

Complete responses should include basic information about Email, the AF App, ABC, Club OS, ClubHub, Vendor Portal, website, Dashboard, Academy, and IDEA ClubConnect.

CLUB ENVIRONMENT

This section explores the atmosphere of the club. Learners who have completed this section should have foundational knowledge about all of the following:

- PLEASE service standards
- Common engagement tactics
- The members' perspective
- Club care and cleanliness objectives

Use the following suggestions to check their comprehension and retention of the information:

1) Ask for the definitions behind the acronym PLEASE and how each should be applied.

Personal – Create genuine human connections. Listen – Be fully present, respectful, and curious in every moment of communication.

Empathy – Show compassion and concern for each individual. Anticipate – Uncover and fulfill expressed and unexpressed needs. Sense of Urgency – Seize each opportunity to respond to others. Encourage – Provide an authentic dose of motivation in every encounter.

2) Inquire about the stories of members the staff member has met so far.

Great responses will include some background about the member and even information about their fitness goals.

3) Ask the staff member which aspect of club care might be the most challenging for them and how they would like to be supported in staying engaged.

Possible topics include voicemail, trash, member solicitation, timely responding (via phone, email, text and in person), and club updates/signage.

4) Go over a cleaning plan for club care and assign appropriate tasks.

Consider using the Cleaning Checklist available in the Resource Center and modifying it to fit your space.

SALES AND THE CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE

This section teaches about the various touchpoints of the member life cycle, with slight differences for Managers and Trainers. Learners who have completed this section should be comfortable with all of the following:

- Strategies for generating leads
- Getting leads into the club
- Touring and converting prospects/ Conducting the Fitness Consultation
- Member onboarding
- Using the App

Use the following suggestions to check their comprehension and retention of the information:

1) Ask the staff member to list a couple ways to drive lead generation, and how they might get leads into the club.

Good responses will talk about the monthly marketing kits, creating digital content, handling inquiries using the Telephone Guide, and getting referrals.

2) Roleplay a telephone inquiry.

Good responses will follow the Telephone Guide, found in the Resource Center.

3a) Roleplay selling a membership with the staff member (depending upon role).

Make sure the staff member is comfortable with finding the real 'why' motivating the prospect, as well as their knowledge of club amenities and ability to close/ overcome objections using Restate, Isolate, Overcome.

3b) Roleplay delivering a Fitness Consultation with the staff member (depending upon role).

Make sure the staff member is comfortable with finding the real 'why' motivating the prospect, as well as their knowledge of the High 5 assessment, ability to tie exercises back to the member's 'why,' and ability to close/ overcome objections using Restate, Isolate, Overcome.

4) Review follow-up strategies and cadences the staff should have with members.

Proper cadence is 7, 14 , 30, and then every 45 days after sign-up.

5) Have the staff member practice navigating the Anytime Fitness App.

Focus on how they will use it with clients, navigating the Get Started Plans, and how to schedule and text within the App.
