4-STEP SALES SCRIPT

OFFER: Nutrition-ONLY | For Non-Training Members

STEP 1 | START WITH CURIOSITY

GOAL: Understand where she's at—don't assume anything.

COACH:

"Hey Mrs. Smith—how have things been going with your workouts lately?"

MRS. SMITH:

"Pretty good."

COACH:

"Nice. Are you seeing the results of all your hard work?"

MRS. SMITH:

"I think a little... not a ton though."

COACH:

"I Understand. How's your nutrition going?"

MRS. SMITH:

"Probably not the best."

STEP 2 | PLANT THE SEED

GOAL: Introduce the challenge casually—no pressure.

COACH:

"Mrs. Smith, we've got something coming up you might like—it's called the AF360 Challenge. It's 6 weeks of nutrition coaching, weekly habits, a plan, body scans, the whole deal. Based on the progress you've made, I think this is exactly what you need."

MRS. SMITH:

"When does it start?"

COACH:

"It kicks off on (insert date), and we've only got a few more spots available. Do you want me to put you down so we can lock in your spot?"

GOAL: Ask clearly. Handle hesitations calmly. Get the yes.

COACH:

"Want me to save you a spot?"

MRS. SMITH:

"Maybe... I just don't know if I'll stick with it."

COACH:

"Totally fair—and honestly, that's why the coaching check-ins are built into this. You won't be doing this alone. We're going to make sure to get the help and guidance you need for the next 6 weeks. Let's do this Mrs. Smith!"
