SUN	Happy Kickoff Week! Are you ready to hit the ground running with the Don't Sweat It Challenge? To set yourself up for success, start thinking about your goals for the next six weeks in terms of nutrition, exercise and recovery. It's helpful to set realistic, attainable goals, and also to take small steps that will help you get there and overcome any barriers standing in your way. Having a support system is a big predictor of success, so know that you can lean on me and other challengers who have your back! Check out this article on setting SMART goals that make sense for you and your lifestyle and remember to use those goals to help you experiment, assess, and adjust changes in your nutrition over these first two weeks. I can't wait to hear what goals you set and help you reach them!	Learn How to Set Goals That Matter to You and Achieve Success	WHAT ARE YOUR GOALS? Post this question and share the "Learn How to Set Goals That Matter to You and Achieve Success" article to get your challenge participants to start thinking about their goals for the next six weeks. Ask them to share their goal/s in the comments—but only if they're comfortable!	Learn How to Set Goals That Matter to You and Achieve Success
MON			MOTIVATION POST Share this motivational quote with the caption: "Don't sweat where you're at in your journey today. Instead, be proud of yourself for taking the first step towards a healthier you! 💖"	Motivation Asset
TUES	Nutrition is important not only for seeing results, but for your overall health and wellness. Keeping healthy meals and snacks at the ready is a great way to help yourself prepare to eat well. That's why I highly recommend that you experiment with meal prep this week. Check out the article for tips! Any questions? Send them my way.	Meal Prep 101: Everything You Need to Know About Preparing Food In Advance	MEAL PLAN VS. MEAL PREP Go on video (LIVE) and explain the difference between meal planning and meal prepping, and how both can help you make healthy happen in the kitchen.
WED			MOVEMENT MYTH Debunk this movement myth by sharing this asset. Make the caption: "FACT: A "good workout" isn't defined by how much you sweat. As long as you're moving your body, it counts towards making healthy happen. 💪"	Movement Myth Asset
THUR	How is your body feeling after your first week of our 6-week challenge? Although physical activity and nutrition are essential for your health, it's just as important to focus on recovery to help your body repair and renew. Check out this article to learn more about the importance of recovery, and how to build it into your routine.	Why Recovery Is Essential—And How to Do It	RECOVERY INSPIRATION It's likely that your participants are feeling a little sore today. Share this asset and the "Why Recovery Is Essential—And How to Do It" article with them to spark some active recovery ideas. Make the caption: "What's your favorite way to recover when feeling sore?"	Check-In Asset + Why Recovery Is Essential—And How to Do It
FRI			CHECK-IN Week one of the challenge is almost coming to an end! Check in with your followers today to see how they're feeling. Ask them to share in the comments!
SAT	We're officially closing out week 1, together! Congrats. In need of some serious fuel? Start with breakfast! Healthy breakfasts do NOT have to be boring. Remember what I said about meal prep? Try something new, like this breakfast burrito casserole recipe, for a fun weekend brunch or easy weekday breakfast!	Easy Breakfast Burrito Casserole	BREAKFAST IDEA Share a fun and quick breakfast idea that they can make over the weekend—or even on a weekday! We recommend our Easy Breakfast Burrito Casserole. SUN	Ready for week two? How did experimenting with new recipes and meal prep go last week? To help keep you moving in the right direction, I'm sharing an article with grocery shopping tips. While abs aren't only made in the kitchen, eating well is key to improving strength, performance, and energy levels. This week, let's focus on filling up your home with healthy ingredients, your body with movements that make you feel good, and your mind with positive thoughts. You got this!	Our Favorite Healthy Foods to Add to Your Grocery List	HEALTHY PLATE HACK Before your participants hit the grocery store this week, share with them the "Our Favorite Healthy Foods to Add to Your Grocery List" article. This way, they can effectively meal plan and create a grocery list!	Our Favorite Healthy Foods to Add to Your Grocery List
MON			MOTIVATION POST Your participants are now into week two. Encourage them to keep pushing through the soreness by posting this motivational quote. Make the caption: "You'll thank yourself tomorrow, for the work you put in today. So don't dread that sore feeling—embrace it and know that you're one step closer to reaching your goals! 🍌"	Motivation Asset
TUES	Did you love last week's recipe? Looking for more? I wanted to take a quick minute to share this simple, easy (and most importantly, delicious) recipe with you today. It's one of my favorites, especially because it only takes 20 minutes to make - perfect for those busy weeknights. Feel free to sub the shrimp with another protein if you like! One thing that can help save time in the long run is to prepare double (or triple) the amount of a recipe and save the leftovers for another meal. If you end up trying it, let me know what you think!	20-Minute Shrimp Scampi with Zucchini	WHAT'S FOR DINNER? Post a prompt* that asks the participants what they're having for dinner tonight. Have them take a picture of their meal and share it by clicking the "Share Yours" button on the post!
WED			MOVEMENT PRO-TIP Remind your followers that all movement counts and that they can move their body how THEY want to. Share this asset and use the following copy: "PSA: There is no such thing as a "one-size-fits-all" approach to fitness. If you don't like something, don't do it! Remember, exercising should be fun, not a chore. 😊 What type of movement are you loving right now? Comment below!"	Movement Pro-Tip Asset
THUR	You've been working hard for almost two weeks now, and may have already noticed some positive changes. I wanted to check in and see how you're feeling and what you might have noticed in your energy, strength, mood, or whatever else it may be. I also wanted to share this fun bonus workout with you - it's perfect if you're spending the weekend outside and want to get a quick, efficient sweat sesh in. Let me know what you think!	10-Minute Core Workout You Can Do Anywhere	CORE WORKOUT Encourage your followers to complete this 10-minute core workout as a "bonus!" Have them share in the comments when they've completed this workout.	10-Minute Core Workout You Can Do Anywhere
FRI			WORKOUT INSPIRATION Share all three graphics to reiterate the importance of listening to what your body needs. Use the copy: "Not sure what to do in the gym today? Let your body tell you! 🧠 Reflect on how you're feeling and what your body needs so you can continue to make healthy happen. You'll be glad you did!"	Workout Inspiration Asset #1 Workout Inspiration Asset #2 Workout Inspiration Asset #3
SAT	Feel like you need a break and an easy mealtime win? Relax and stick to your healthy meal plan with this simple and delicious one-pan dinner. It cooks for an hour, which gives you plenty of time to kick your feet up, and cleanup is a breeze! Win/win.	One Pan Crispy Peanut Chicken Thighs & Vegetables	DINNER RECIPE Share this easy Thai Peanut Chicken recipe by posting the link. Ask your followers to comment whether they would make this recipe!	One Pan Crispy Peanut Chicken Thighs & Vegetables

WEEK 3
	DASHBOARD MESSAGE	DASHBOARD RESOURCE	FACEBOOK MESSAGE	FACEBOOK RESOURCE
SUN	Dealing with snack attacks? There's nothing wrong with snacking, but planning ahead to keep healthy snacks on hand is important. My favorite snack solution? These Dark Chocolate Cherry Bites. Try making a batch of them to keep on-hand for a quick healthy snack and let me know what you think! Or tell me what your go-to healthy snack is, I can always use extra snack inspiration.	5-Minute Dark Chocolate Cherry Snack Bites	MEAL PREP Ask your participants whether or not they've meal prepped for the start of a new week! Leave it as an open-ended question or post it as a poll.
MON			MOTIVATION POST Post this motivational quote to encourage your followers to not give up. They're almost halfway there! Make the caption: "We're almost halfway through the challenge! How are you feeling? Now is a great time to reflect on your goals and why you started. You got this! 🍌"	Motivation Post
TUES			RECOVERY MYTH It's time to bust another myth! Remind your participants that it's OK to take a recovery day by posting this asset. Use the copy: "Practice saying this over and over again: "It's OK to take a rest day." Forget the idea of having to hit the gym every day to see results. Your body needs recovery days just as much as it needs exercise! Don't forget that. 💜"	Recovery Myth Asset
WED	Hey there! I wanted to check in to see how your week is going and share some tips on staying hydrated. I know, you hear it all the time-- drink your water. But seriously, it's essential! I would love for you to check out the linked article on ways you can identify dehydration and whether you need to drink more H2O throughout the day. In the meantime, try this experiment and see how you feel: Aim for drinking half your bodyweight in ounces of water every day (ex. for 150lb, drink 75oz of water), and make drinking water part of your daily routine.	Thirsty? Staying Hydrated Is More Important Than You Think	BOTTOMS UP! Share the "Thirsty? Staying Hydrated Is More Important Than You Think" article along with this asset as a fun way to remind your participants to drink water throughout their day.	Hydration Reminder Asset + Thirsty? Staying Hydrated Is More Important Than You Think
THUR			Q&A Your participants are almost halfway through the challenge, and at this point, it's likely that they might have questions! Use the Q&A feature* to see. Don't forget to answer any questions that are posted in the comments!
FRI	You are crushing it! I know you are working hard but don't forget to rest, recover and get some good sleep. Not only will you feel refreshed and rejuvenated, but you will also have the energy to keep reaching for those fitness goals. Check out this article to learn more. Sleep tight!	Don't Sleep on Shuteye: Learn Why Sleep Is the Key to Reaching Your Fitness Goals	SLEEP POLL Post a poll* to see how many hours of zzz's your participants got! Share the "Don't Sleep on Shuteye: Learn Why Sleep Is the Key to Reaching Your Fitness Goals" to reinforce why sleep is so important.	Don't Sleep on Shuteye: Learn Why Sleep Is the Key to Reaching Your Fitness Goals
SAT	Ready for another bonus workout? This one takes just 15 minutes. If you think you're too tired for a workout, give it a try - it's specifically designed to give you an energy boost! It's a great opportunity to experiment with your energy levels and what your body needs.	A 15-Minute Workout to Add Energy into Your Day	WORKOUT IDEA Post this 15-minute Energy Boost workout in the group. Ask your participants to share what they thought of it in the comments!" WEEK 4
SUN	You're halfway done, and you're doing great! Let's take a moment to pause and tune into your body. Are you giving it the fuel, rest and movement that it needs? Remember to check in with your body and assess your needs daily. Reflect on that question and send me your thoughts so that we can keep this partnership going!		MIDPOINT CHECK-IN Your participants are over halfway done with the challenge. Recognize this and encourage them to keep making healthy happen by posting this motion graphic and caption: "Three weeks down, three to go. Don't give up now! 💪"	Midpoint Check-In Asset
MON	Since it's mid-point week, let's take all that progress you've made so far and focus on making sure it sticks. Use this article, and assess your habits during the first few weeks of the challenge, to guide you to create a routine you'll stick with, even when the challenge is over! Share with me what that routine looks like so we can make it happen.	How to Build Routines Even if They Haven't Stuck in the Past	AM VS. PM WORKOUTS Post a poll* to see whether your participants prefer AM or PM workouts. Don't forget to mention that there isn't a wrong answer in the caption!
TUES			MOTIVATION POST At this point of the challenge, the feeling of burnout might be real for some of your participants. Remind them that there's no such thing as a bad workout by posting this asset. Make the caption: "Now read that again! Every workout and every step forward adds up to help you reach your goals."	Motivation Asset
WED	Okay, at this point you might be craving takeout. Ask yourself...is it going to help you reach your goals? Most often than not, the answer will be no, but thankfully, you can re-create that experience at home! Check out this recipe for a delicious, healthy meal you can create at home and enjoy just as much as takeout. No waiting for delivery drivers - it cooks fast too!	Egg Roll in a Bowl	DINNER RECIPE This Egg Roll in a Bowl recipe is too good not to share! It's likely that some of your participants might be dealing with cravings or temptation to indulge in unhealthy meals. Post a link to this recipe as a way to show your participants that they can still have their favorite foods while making healthy happen.	Egg Roll in a Bowl
THUR			NUTRITION PRO-TIP Eating while distracted is one of the best ways to overindulge—but you already knew that! Share this helpful trick with your participants by posting this asset and copy: "If you're reading this while scarfing down lunch at your desk, STOP! 🛑" Now, close the laptop or put down your phone. Practicing mindful eating will allow you to pay attention to your hunger and fullness cues, while being able to savor each and every bite. Win!"	Nutrition Pro-Tip Asset
FRI	It's the end of week four, and you guessed it - I'm sharing a bonus workout! This one is a bodyweight workout, so you can do it anytime, anywhere. Did you love last week's bonus workout? Remember, always listen to your body and rest when you need to!	The Perfect 30-Minute Bodyweight Morning Workout to Start Your Day	HOW DID YOU MAKE HEALTHY HAPPEN? To spark engagement, ask the question: "How did you make healthy happen today?" Encourage your participants to comment below!
SAT			CARDIO MIX-UP Most people gravitate towards what they know for cardio: treadmills, bikes, and ellipticals. Share a fun workout (no cardio machines!) that your participants can do to mix up their cardio routine.

WEEK 5
	DASHBOARD MESSAGE	DASHBOARD RESOURCE	FACEBOOK MESSAGE	FACEBOOK RESOURCE
SUN	This week, we're focusing on recovery, and nutrition plays a big role in that! When you're short on time, it can be hard to eat healthy. And while I love making my own snacks, I know that things can get crazy! Here's a list of healthy snacks that will help you meet your goals and make healthy eating on-the-go a simple task.	22 Grab-And-Go Healthy Snacks You'll Love	NUTRITION MYTH Snacks have got a bad rap—and it's time to change that! Share this common myth with your participants. Don't forget to use the suggested copy that links to a few of our favorite better-for-you snacks: "Forget what you've heard about snacking! As long as you're reaching for nutritious and wholesome choices, snacking can be a great way to keep your body fueled between meals. Need a few ideas? Here are some of our favorites: What's your go-to healthy snack? Share in the comments below!"	Nutrition Myth Asset + 22 Grab-And-Go Healthy Snacks You'll Love
MON	Recovery is essential to health and fitness. I want you to check in with your body each morning to see how you're feeling. Do you need more sleep? Is there a sore area that you can treat with some foam rolling or simple stretches? Check out this article to learn everything you need to know about foam rolling, and send me a message if you have any questions!	Foam Rolling 101: Everything You Need to Know to Get Rolling	FOAM ROLLING 101 Go on video and give a quick demo of how to use the foam roller on different areas of the body. Ask your participants to comment whether they love or have a love-hate relationship with the foam roller! Share the "Foam Rolling 101: Everything You Need to Know to Get Rolling"	Foam Rolling 101: Everything You Need to Know to Get Rolling
TUES			MOTIVATION POST Post this phone wallpaper and suggested copy: "Need a little inspiration? Screenshot this photo and set it as your phone wallpaper for a positive, encouraging reminder every time you pick it up! ❤️"	Motivation Asset
WED	Living a healthy life isn't just about getting to the gym or eating your veggies. It's about your overall wellness, too. Are there any areas in your life that need attention? Check out this article, which is filled with ideas that can make a big impact on your total wellbeing.	5 Ways to Positively Impact Your Holistic Well-Being Anytime, Anywhere	FILL-IN-THE-BLANK Using the text feature* post the question: "Today I am grateful for ____." Ask your followers to fill in the blank by commenting below!
THUR			SEE A CHUG, POST ONE Post a fun video of you chugging water with the caption something like: "If you see this, you're up next! Comment a photo or video of you chugging water below."
FRI	We're closing out week 5 and what better way to celebrate all your hard work than with this chocolate protein shake recipe? Protein-packed, indulgent and simple, you're going to put this shake recipe on repeat.	Double Chocolate Chunk Protein Shake	POST-WORKOUT FUEL Share this delicious chocolate protein shake recipe as post-workout fuel inspiration for your participants. Ask them to comment what their go-to post-workout recovery snack or meal is!	Double Chocolate Chunk Protein Shake
SAT	Think you can't mix HIIT with strength training? Think again! Check out this bonus dumbbell workout for a quick way to build muscle and feel the burn.	25-Minute Dumbbell HIIT Workout	WORKOUT POLL Ask your participants what they're doing in the gym today by posting a poll*. Use options such as: "Lower body, Upper body, Full body, etc."

	DASHBOARD MESSAGE	DASHBOARD RESOURCE	FACEBOOK MESSAGE	FACEBOOK RESOURCE
SUN	We're in the home stretch - can you believe it? I know, I don't want this to end, either! Now's the time to double down and finish strong. How did last week go? Have you found a good mix of movement and recovery? How can you improve this week? Also, don't forget to schedule your Finale Appointment. Send me your availability so we can get it scheduled!		MOTIVATION VIDEO It's the last week! Go on video to encourage your participants to finish the challenge strong.
MON	I am so proud of you and how far you've come over the last five (almost six!) weeks of this challenge. Remember that all changes, both big and small, make a difference, and have a lasting impact on your healthy lifestyle and health goals!	Reach Your Goals Faster by Making Small Changes in Your Life	RECOVERY PRO-TIP Small changes can make a big impact, just like this pro-tip! Share it to help your participants get better sleep. Make the copy: "The key🔑 to unlocking a better night's sleep? Going screen-free one hour before bed! The blue and white light from electronic screens can prevent melatonin from being released, which can make falling (and staying) asleep more difficult. And nobody wants that!"	Recovery Pro-Tip Asset
TUES			MOTIVATION POST Positive self-talk can make a huge difference in day-to-day life. Motivate and empower your participants by sharing this graphic and caption: "The words you use on a day-to-day basis have the power to shape how you think and feel. This week, try swapping some of these common phrases for more positive, empowering ones instead! You'll be surprised at the difference it can make."	Motivation Asset
WED	As we wrap up the Challenge, I'm leaving you with one final bonus workout. This one is awesome because it's total-body, efficient, and you can do it anywhere. Keep this one in your back pocket and make it count!	No Equipment Necessary: The At-Home Circuit Workout You Can Do Anywhere	BODYWEIGHT WORKOUT Post this bodyweight circuit workout and tell your participants to save it for the next time they can't make it to the gym.	No Equipment Necessary: The At-Home Circuit Workout You Can Do Anywhere
THUR			SWEATY SELFIE Encourage your participants to embrace their post-workout sweatiness by posting a selfie! We recommend using the prompt* feature.
FRI	You did it! Congrats to you!! Take a minute to celebrate all the wins that you accomplished, big or small. Don't forget - you need to complete your Finale Appointment this weekend. If you haven't scheduled yours already, reply back with your weekend availability and we will get it on the calendar! I'm sad the Challenge is coming to a close, but remember that I'm always here for you!		NEXT STEPS The challenge is coming to an end and your participants might be wondering, "Now what?" Go on video or post next steps that you want the participants to take.
SAT			FINAL DAY It's the last day of the challenge! Remind your participants to celebrate their hard work and commitment by posting this motion graphic and copy: "You did it! And we're so proud of you. Thank yourself and your body for all of the hard work and don't forget to take time to celebrate all of the successes and milestones that you accomplished along the way. 💜"	Closing Asset
